FRANKFORT, KY – FEBRUARY 13, 2019 – Investors Heritage Life Insurance Company (“Investors Heritage”) announced today that Jay Slatton has been named Director of Preneed Development. In this role, Mr. Slatton will work closely with field directors and prospects to help Investors Heritage build on its platform of leading preneed solutions. He will continue in his role as Regional Preneed Director, operating out of Tennessee.

“We are pleased to name Jay Slatton as our Director of Preneed Development,” said Harry Lee Waterfield II, Chief Executive Officer at Investors Heritage. “The preneed space is a core part of our business, one we are deeply committed to, and we believe Jay’s experience will benefit our funeral home accounts, our products, services, and the company for the long term. We look forward to working with Jay to grow our preneed market share in our current regions and into new markets nationally.”
